

PN-08	Website Cookie Policy
Processing Activities to which this Notice Refers	PAC-07 Management of the eufcn.com Website
Method of Delivery and Retention	This Cookie Policy is addressed to all users who visit the website eufcn.com. It is permanently published on the website and can always be consulted via the "Cookie Policy" link in the footer of every page. On first accessing the website, before any cookies other than strictly necessary ones are installed, the user is shown a consent management banner. Through this banner, it is possible to accept, reject, or select the categories of cookies to authorise. The preferences expressed are recorded by the consent management system adopted by EUFCN and can be changed at any time via the "Cookie Preferences" link, always available in the footer of the website. This Cookie Policy describes the technologies used by the website, the purposes for which they are used, and how users can manage their preferences. For all information relating to the processing of personal data carried out during browsing, please refer to the Website Privacy Policy (IN-07).

CONSENT MANAGEMENT SYSTEM (COOKIE BANNER)

On first accessing the website eufcn.com, before any cookies other than strictly necessary ones are installed, a banner is displayed allowing the user to make a free, specific and informed choice regarding the use of cookies.

The banner offers the following options, with equal graphic prominence:

- Accept all
- Reject non-essential cookies
- Manage preferences

Simply continuing to browse, scrolling the page, closing the banner, or user inactivity do not constitute an expression of consent.

By accessing the "Manage preferences" area, the user can individually select the categories of cookies to be authorised.

On the website eufcn.com the following categories are provided:

Category	Description	Consent Required
Strictly Necessary Cookies	Enable the website to function, session management, and protection of forms against automated access and abuse attempts. These cannot be disabled.	No
Analytics Cookies	Allow EUFCN to collect statistical information on website usage for the sole purpose of improving its content, functionality and performance. Installed only with the user's prior consent.	Yes

The preferences expressed are recorded by the consent management system and are retained for the time strictly necessary to manage them. The user can change or withdraw them at any time via the "Cookie Preferences" link in the footer of the website.

COOKIE POLICY

1. What Cookies Are

Cookies are small text files that a website may store on the device used by the user while browsing. They allow, for example, a browsing session to be kept active, certain browsing preferences to be remembered, or statistical information on website usage to be collected.

In addition to cookies, the website may use similar technologies that perform equivalent functions.

2. Cookies Used by the Website

Based on the website's configuration at the time this Cookie Policy was drafted, the website eufcn.com uses the following types of cookies.

3. Managing Preferences

The user can change or withdraw their consent at any time using the "Cookie Preferences" link in the footer of the website.

It is also possible to delete or block cookies through the browser's settings. This may limit the proper functioning of some website features.

4. Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies are installed by external service providers used by EUFCN for specific website features.

As at the date of this Cookie Policy, the following services are used:

- Google Analytics, for the collection of statistics on website usage;
- Google reCAPTCHA, for the protection of forms against automated use and spam activity.

Any processing of personal data carried out by such providers is governed by their respective privacy notices.

5. Transfer of Data to Third Countries

The use of services provided by Google may involve the transfer of personal data to countries outside the European Economic Area.

Such transfers take place solely in compliance with Chapter V of the GDPR and the safeguards provided for under Articles 45 and 46 of the GDPR.

6. Updates to the Cookie Policy

This Cookie Policy is reviewed whenever new cookies are introduced, the services used by the website change, or relevant regulatory changes occur.

The latest version is always available on the website eufcn.com.
